

Forum on Hong Kong – ASEAN Regional Cooperation

Thursday, 5 June 2014, 9:00 am to 2:00 pm
Grand Ballroom, InterContinental Kuala Lumpur

Hong Kong Economic & Trade Office
Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region

Asian Strategy & Leadership Institute
Dedicated To Creating A Better Society

Jointly organized by the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce (CGCC), the Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office in Singapore, the Associated Chinese Chambers of Commerce and Industry of Malaysia (ACCCIM), and the Asian Strategy and Leadership Institute (ASLI), the Forum aims to explore further collaboration opportunity, as well as the potential benefits brought about by the regional cooperation between Hong Kong and ASEAN.

ASEAN and Hong Kong rank among each other's top trading partners, with Hong Kong being one of the top investors in ASEAN. Facing global economic challenges and given the huge growth potential of the East Asian market, there is high complementarity between ASEAN and Hong Kong in contributing to the regional economic development to achieve win-win results. Top government officials, key personalities in the business community and experts are invited to share their views on the current state of ASEAN-Hong Kong relations, and to offer thoughts and suggestions on how to further strengthen ties in the future.
