NOMINATION FOR SITEC PROJECT

Please be informed that the Selangor State Government had set up Selangor Information Technology and E-commerce Council (SITEC).

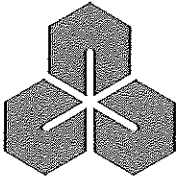

SITEC aims to help 100 SMEs in the state to go online by providing E-commerce class training and technical support in order to establish their online presence. SITEC would like to invite our chamber to recommend 10 members as the potential merchant to join this project. The final selection will be decided by SITEC council, which is chaired by Dato' Teng Chang Khim, Selangor Exco Member of Investment, Industry (SME) & Commerce and Transportation.

The nominated merchant need to fulfill the requirements as listed below:

1. Must be owned by Malaysian citizen, either sole proprietorships or partnerships are eligible.
2. Yearly revenue more than RM400,000 and minimum 5 full time staff. (Exemption maybe given upon application to SITEC council)
3. Office/shop must be located within Selangor.
4. The product of the merchant must be ready stock, pre-order business not allowed.
5. The merchant need to have good track record, firm blacklisted by bank and other government agencies will be barred.
6. Merchant that has no e-commerce experience will be given priority.
7. The selected merchant need to attend all compulsory trainings provided by SITEC (10 classes, held once a month) either the staff or the owner.

Every merchant need to fill in the form (see the attachment) and the form must be endorsed by the chamber.

Interested members please forward the nomination form latest by 16th July 2015, to the Secretariat inquiry@chinesechamber.org.my or fax to number 03-4253 2524.
